

Department of Theatre & Dance

Doctoral Program Checklist

Name/ID:

Entry Term:

Advisor:

Core Requirements (12 hours): THR800 in first semester + 9 credits from department in theatre history, dramatic lit, theory & criticism	Term	Grade	Instructor
THR 800: Intro to Graduate Study
Production Courses (6 hours): Directing (THR 710, 715, or 815) or Scenography (THR 720, 721, 820, 821, 822) or Dramaturgy (THR 702)
Elective Courses (9 hours): 9 hours offered by the department that focuses on the academic study of theatre and performance history, literature, theory, and related methodologies are required. Courses are selected with graduate advisor to reflect the student's special interests. These may include courses outside the Department with prior approval of the advisor and Director of Graduate Study.
Secondary Field Requirements (9 hours): Graduate level courses from outside of THR department to aid in dissertation research.
Research Skills and Responsible Scholarship (plus foreign language if required by faculty advisor)
THR 800: Intro to Graduate Study (taken first semester of enrollment)
THR 801: Professional Development or Equivalent (1 credit)
THR 801: Professional Development or Equivalent (1 credit)
THR 801: Professional Development or Equivalent (1 credit)
THR 999: Dissertation Hours
Comprehensive Exam Preparation (typically 6 hours)
THR 998: Doctoral Investigation and Conference
Dissertation (typically 18 hours)
THR 999: Doctoral Dissertation

The PhD requires 60 hours not including Foreign Language Requirements. For more information please consult the department handbook.